

UNIVERSITY SQUARE MASTER PLAN

CONSTRUCTION UPDATE 2 LEICESTER STREET

October 2018

In October, construction on the eastern side of Leicester Street will be completed and the footpath will reopen.

To complete this side of the road, the following work will be carried out in early October:

- Planting of 19 x Elms (Ulmus 'Sapporo Autumn Gold')
- Understorey planting in new garden beds,
- Installation of new street lights
- Installation of a new asphalt footpath.

Pedestrians

The eastern side of Leicester Street (non-park side) will be closed in stages between Tuesday 2 October, 2018 and Friday, 5 October, 2018 while the new footpath is constructed.

During this time, access to one entrance at both Graduate House and the Melbourne Business School will remain open at all times.

The footpath on the western, or park side of Leicester Street, will remain open and fully accessible during this week.

Once the eastern side of Leicester Street has been completed and re-opened, construction will start on the park side. When this occurs, the existing footpath on the park side of Leicester Street will be closed to pedestrian traffic and all pedestrian traffic will be diverted to the new footpath on the eastern side.

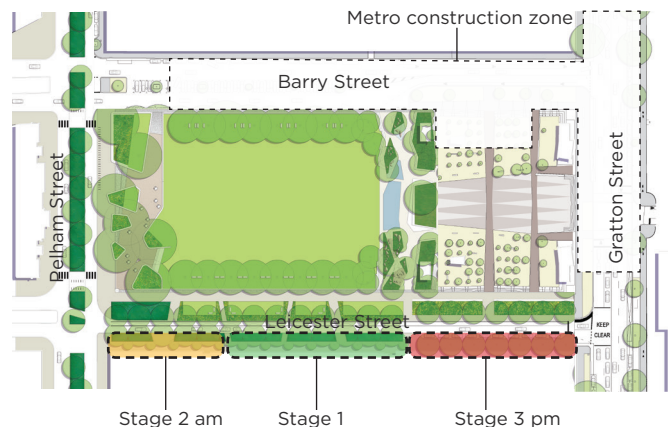

Vehicle Traffic

Leicester Street will continue to be open to northbound traffic.

When construction work moves to the park side of Leicester Street, the traffic lane will shift slightly east.

Footpath construction program

To ensure that access to Graduate House and the Melbourne Business School is maintained, the footpath will be reconstructed over four days and in three stages.
