City of Melbourne Celebrates Cultural Diversity

Finding Melbourne's Community Hubs

The City of Melbourne is one of the world's most harmonious and culturally diverse communities.

Melbourne City Council provides facilities and services to foster a sense of community for all. Many of these are free for everyone to access and enjoy.

Docklands Hub

The Docklands Hub offers information and meeting spaces for community groups, residents and organisations. There is also a Melbourne Library Service for the return, reservations and pickup of books, and a free wireless internet service.

Address: 17 Waterview Walk, Docklands (near the corner of Bourke Street and Harbour Esplanade – look for the giant rabbit sculpture) Melbourne, VIC 3000
Phone: (03) 8622 4822

Multicultural Hub

A friendly place where communities can access information, book rooms for meetings, attend regular activities and training sessions or use computers for free to access the internet.

The Multicultural Hub is managed by the Adult Multicultural Education Services (AMES).

Address: 506 Elizabeth Street (opposite the Queen Victoria Market) Melbourne, VIC 3000
Phone: (03) 9092 1500

Melbourne Library Service

The libraries offer a wide range of facilities, services and resources for free, including books, CDs, DVDs, magazines, journals and newspapers in a range of languages and free wireless internet access.
