Introduction

The City of Melbourne acknowledges and embraces the transformative role that business and tourism plays in building all aspects of a bold, innovative and sustainable city.

An estimated 14,000 small businesses currently operate in the City of Melbourne, representing over 80 per cent of all businesses within the municipality. While our business event delegates stimulate the visitor economy and delegates experience all the city has to offer.

Council's vision is to consolidate Melbourne's strengths as a 'prosperous city': a place that is regarded as the destination of choice amongst international and local business and enterprise by excelling in its ability to nurture a vibrant economy for those who work, live, study, visit and invest.

The City of Melbourne Council Plan 2017-21 establishes a framework for this vision through commitments including:

- Support to Melbourne's start-ups and innovative businesses.
- Opportunities for increased economic participation through social enterprise.
- Support to local, national and global events that stimulate the economy and contribute to a vibrant city life.
- Attraction of conferences and conventions to Melbourne.
- Affordable business accommodation.

The key objective of the Business and Tourism funding programs is to support small businesses and business events that will enhance the City of Melbourne's reputation for innovation, and contribute to a thriving, sustainable business culture.

Through a range of funding opportunities, the annual Business and Tourism funding program contributes to Melbourne's reputation as a city which can support existing and emerging businesses to thrive as an anchor for Melbourne's continued prosperity. The program also assists in raising Melbourne's reputation as a 'knowledge city', promoting Council's role in key industry sectors through sponsorship of business events.
