

WESTERN PAVILION REDEVELOPMENT

Project completion

May 2022

City of Melbourne is excited to announce that the redevelopment of Western Pavilion in Royal Park is complete.

The new pavilion includes:

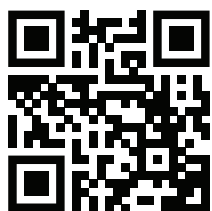

- a new social room and kitchen
- four new gender neutral change facilities
- two umpire rooms
- increased equipment and storage rooms
- ambulant toilet cubicles
- an accessible unisex toilet
- cubicle with accessible shower
- baby change facilities.

Pavilions in Royal Park

Western Pavilion is one of three pavilions to be upgraded by the City of Melbourne in Royal Park. Construction of the new Brens Pavilion has commenced, while Ryder Pavilion is currently in design.

The upgraded pavilions will ensure more teams and community groups can access the facilities, aligning with Council's major initiative to increase and upgrade accessible, inclusive spaces for women in City of Melbourne sports facilities.
